BIG IDEA:

JESUS ALONE IS WORTHY OF ALL WORSHIP

QUESTIONS:

Revelation 5:1–4 John wept because no one was found worthy to open the scroll. When have you felt hopeless or helpless about the state of the world? Have you ever been moved by emotion at your own depravity? How does it make you feel knowing Jesus truly holds the future in His hands?

Revelation 5:5–7 The Lion of Judah, the Lamb who was slain, steps forward to take the scroll. What does it mean to you that Jesus is both strong like a lion and gentle like a lamb? Where in your life do you need to be more strong and where do you need to be more gentle?

Revelation 5:8–9 The elders and angels fall down before the Lamb and sing a new song. How often do you take time to worship Jesus just for who He is? What would it look like for worship to become part of your daily rhythm instead of just a Sunday thing? Is it exciting to learn a new worship song at church?

Revelation 5:10 “You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God.” What does it mean to you that you were saved to serve? Where is God giving you opportunities to represent Him in your home, work, or church?

Revelation 5:11–13 John sees countless angels and creatures declaring Jesus’ worth. How does this vision expand your view of heaven and worship? When do you feel closest to God in worship?

Revelation 5:14 The entire scene ends in complete praise to the Lamb. Why do you think God calls us to praise Him even in hard seasons? How can praise change the way you handle stress or fear?

WEEK 40
OCTOBER 5–9
REVELATION 5:1–14

READING PLAN

- ☐ THURSDAY | REVELATION 1
- ☐ FRIDAY | REVELATION 2
- ☐ MONDAY | REVELATION 3
- ☐ TUESDAY | REVELATION 4
- ☐ WEDNESDAY | REVELATION 5
- ☐ THURSDAY | REVELATION 6
- ☐ FRIDAY | REVELATION 7

APPLICATION: Choose one Beatitude from this passage to focus on this week. Memorize that verse of Scripture.

BIG IDEA:

YOU FIGHT FROM VICTORY, NOT FOR VICTORY

QUESTIONS:

Revelation 12:1–6 John sees a vision of a woman and a dragon, showing the battle between God's plan and Satan's opposition. When have you felt like you were caught in a spiritual battle? How can remembering that God's plan always prevails bring peace to your heart today?

Revelation 12:7–9 Michael and his angels fight against the dragon, and Satan is defeated and thrown down. What does this scene teach you about God's power over evil? How does it encourage you to know the devil's defeat is already certain?

Revelation 12:10 A loud voice declares that salvation and authority belong to Christ. How do you see Jesus' victory making a difference in your life right now? What area of your life needs to come under His authority? What does it look like to place your life under His authority?

Revelation 12:11 Believers overcome the enemy "by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony." How has Jesus' sacrifice changed your story? Who needs to hear your testimony this week?

Revelation 12:12–13 The enemy is filled with fury because his time is short. How does that truth change the way you think about temptation and spiritual pressure? What helps you stay alert and close to Jesus when life feels like a battle?

Revelation 12:17 The dragon wages war against those who keep God's commands and hold fast their faith in Jesus. What does it look like to stand firm in faith when following Jesus is unpopular? Who helps you stay strong when you feel weary?

WEEK 41

OCTOBER 12–16

REVELATION 12:1–17

READING PLAN

- ☐ MONDAY | REVELATION 8
- ☐ TUESDAY | REVELATION 9
- ☐ WEDNESDAY | REVELATION 10
- ☐ THURSDAY | REVELATION 11
- ☐ FRIDAY | REVELATION 12

APPLICATION: Spend a few moments writing down your testimony. Ask God to show you someone to send it to, to encourage them and then

BIG IDEA:

FAITH THAT ENDURES SHINES
BRIGHTEST IN THE DARKEST DAYS

QUESTIONS:

Revelation 14:6–7 John sees an angel proclaiming the eternal gospel to every nation, tribe, and language. What does this show you about God's heart for all people? How does it encourage you to know that God is still reaching out, even when the world resists Him? Who in your life needs to hear that same message of hope?

Revelation 14:8 Another angel announces the fall of Babylon—a symbol of worldly pride and sin. What modern examples remind you of people or systems that try to live without God? Why do you think pride and power never last? What helps you stay humble when the world chases status or success?

Revelation 14:9–10 A third angel warns that those who worship the beast will face God's judgment. Why do you think God takes idolatry—putting anything above Him—so seriously? What are some “everyday idols” that compete for your heart and attention?

Revelation 14:12 “This calls for patient endurance on the part of God's people who keep His commands and remain faithful to Jesus.” What helps you keep going when following Jesus feels hard or unpopular? Who in your life models endurance and inspires you to stay faithful?

Revelation 14:13 John hears a voice from heaven saying, “Blessed are those who die in the Lord...their deeds will follow them.” How does this verse give you hope about living for Jesus now and eternity later? What kind of legacy do you want your faith to leave behind?

APPLICATION: Choose one area of your life where it's hardest to stay faithful—at home, at work, or in your habits. Each day this week, pray, “Lord, help me endure and stay faithful to You in (that place).”

WEEK 42

OCTOBER 19–23

REVELATION 14:6–13

READING PLAN

- ☐ MONDAY | REVELATION 13
- ☐ TUESDAY | REVELATION 14
- ☐ WEDNESDAY | REVELATION 15
- ☐ THURSDAY | REVELATION 16
- ☐ FRIDAY | REVELATION 17

BIG IDEA:

WHAT'S BROKEN NOW WON'T STAY BROKEN FOREVER

QUESTIONS:

Revelation 21:1–2 John sees a new heaven and a new earth, where God makes everything fresh and whole again. What parts of your life feel broken today? What does John's vision tell you about God's heart for you and your family? When life feels heavy, how does the promise of "new" give you hope right now?

Revelation 21:3 God promises to live right in the middle of His people. How do you make room for God in your life? What difference would it make if you remembered every day that God is with you—at home, at work, even in hard moments?

Revelation 21:4 "He will wipe every tear from their eyes." Think about a time you felt deep hurt or loss. How does this verse remind you that pain won't have the last word? How could this promise comfort someone else who's grieving? Is there something you are grieving now that you need God to heal?

Revelation 21:5 Jesus says, "I am making everything new." Where have you already seen Him bring something dead or broken back to life in your story? How does that give you hope for the things in your life that still seem broken and dead?

Revelation 21:6 God calls Himself the Alpha and the Omega, which means the beginning and the end. How does knowing He's in control of every chapter of your life help you trust Him with the one you're in right now?

Revelation 21:14 "Those who overcome will inherit all this." What does it mean to you to be an "overcomer"? When life feels long or hard, what keeps you from giving up on faith? Who and how can you encourage them to be an overcomer this week?

WEEK 43

OCTOBER 26–30

REVELATION 21:1–7

READING PLAN

- ☐ MONDAY | REVELATION 18
- ☐ TUESDAY | REVELATION 19
- ☐ WEDNESDAY | REVELATION 20
- ☐ THURSDAY | REVELATION 21
- ☐ FRIDAY | REVELATION 22

APPLICATION: Write down one area of your life that feels broken. Pray each day this week, "Lord, make this new," and thank Him that renewal is coming.

BIG IDEA:

FAITH GROWS WHEN YOU WORK IT, NOT WHEN YOU WISH IT

QUESTIONS:

2 Peter 1:3 Peter reminds us that God's divine power has already given us everything we need to live a godly life. What keeps you from believing that's really true? Where do you sometimes feel like you're still "missing something" to follow Him well? Who can you remind this Scripture to this week to encourage them that they have been given everything they need.

2 Peter 1:5 Peter says to "make every effort" to add goodness, knowledge, and self-control to your faith. Which of these qualities do you most want to grow in right now? What's one small step you could take to practice it this week?

2 Peter 1:6–7 These qualities build on each other like steps that lead us closer to Jesus. How does love strengthen all the other traits Peter lists? What's an example of love helping you grow in patience, self-control, or kindness?

2 Peter 1:8 When we grow in these things, our faith becomes effective and fruitful. How have you seen small acts of obedience, like forgiving someone, serving in the church, or showing grace, produce real growth in your faith?

2 Peter 1:9–10 Peter warns that forgetting who we are in Jesus Christ makes us stumble. Do you know who you are in Jesus? What helps you stay aware of God's work in your life each day? Is there a routine, verse, or reminder that keeps your faith steady when you start to drift?

2 Peter 1:11 Peter promises that those who grow in faith will receive a "rich welcome" into God's eternal kingdom. How does living with eternity in mind change the way you handle today's stress, goals, or decisions?

WEEK 44
NOVEMBER 2–6
2 PETER 1:3–11

READING PLAN

- ☐ MONDAY | 2 PETER 1
- ☐ TUESDAY | 2 PETER 2
- ☐ WEDNESDAY | 2 PETER 3
- ☐ THURSDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 1
- ☐ FRIDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 2

APPLICATION: Pick one spiritual habit (prayer, Scripture, or service) to strengthen this week and practice it daily as a way to grow your faith.

BIG IDEA:

DON'T WASTE YOUR LIFE BUILDING
WHAT WON'T LAST

QUESTIONS:

1 Corinthians 3:10 Paul says each builder should be careful how they build. What are you building your life on right now? What is your life building for the Kingdom of God? What daily choices show what matters most to you? What do your life choices reveal is your current priority?

1 Corinthians 3:12 Paul compares lasting materials like gold and silver with temporary ones like wood and straw. What are some “wood and straw” things in your life that might look impressive now but won’t last forever? What are some “gold” things that have eternal value?

1 Corinthians 3:13 Paul says God will test the quality of our work. How does knowing that motivate you to live with purpose and integrity today? What kind of work or investment do you think will still matter 100 years from now?

1 Corinthians 3:14 Those whose work endures will receive a reward from God. What kind of “reward” do you hope to hear from Him one day? How does that future hope shape the way you spend your time and energy now?

1 Corinthians 3:15 Even if our work burns up, our salvation remains secure. How does that truth remind you of God’s grace? How does it free you to build faithfully without fear of failure?

WEEK 45

NOVEMBER 9–13

1 CORINTHIANS 3:10–15

READING PLAN

- ☐ MONDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 3
- ☐ TUESDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 4
- ☐ WEDNESDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 5
- ☐ THURSDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 6
- ☐ FRIDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 7

APPLICATION: Take inventory of how you spend your time and write out a daily time log. Replace one temporary pursuit with something eternal like prayer, serving, or encouraging others.

BIG IDEA:

YOU'RE NOT JUST PART OF A CHURCH;
YOU'RE PART OF CHRIST'S BODY

QUESTIONS:

1 Corinthians 12:12–13 Paul says we were all baptized into one body by one Spirit. Why do you think belonging to God's family is so special? How does it feel knowing you're fully included—no matter your background or story?

1 Corinthians 12:14–17 Every part of the body matters. When have you ever felt left out, overlooked, or unimportant in the church? How does this verse encourage you that you are not overlooked and you do hold value? How can you help others feel seen and valued the way Jesus sees you and them?

1 Corinthians 12:18–20 God arranged every part of the body just the way He wanted. How does that truth give you confidence in the gifts He's given you? What unique part do you play in our church family? Are you chipping in appropriately with our church family or are you only using what other people are doing and giving?

1 Corinthians 12:21–23 Paul says no one can say, "I don't need you." How can pride or comparison harm unity in the church? What helps you celebrate others' gifts instead of comparing yours to theirs?

1 Corinthians 12:24–26 When one part suffers, all suffer; when one rejoices, all rejoice. Who in your church family is hurting and could use encouragement right now? Who could you celebrate or thank for something good God is doing in their life?

1 Corinthians 12:27 "You are the body of Christ." What does that mean for how you treat people in your church and those in your community that love Jesus but are different from you?

WEEK 46NOVEMBER 16–20*1 CORINTHIANS 12:12–27*READING PLAN

- ☐ MONDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 8
- ☐ TUESDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 9
- ☐ WEDNESDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 10
- ☐ THURSDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 11
- ☐ FRIDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 12

APPLICATION: Encourage one person in your church this week—thank them for the way they serve or tell them how their faith impacts you.

BIG IDEA:

LOVE IS THE PROOF THAT YOUR FAITH IS REAL

QUESTIONS:

1 Corinthians 13:1–3 Paul says even the most impressive gifts and sacrifices mean nothing without love. When are you tempted to do “good things” just to be noticed or feel important? What helps you shift your focus back to loving people the way Jesus does?

1 Corinthians 13:4–5 Love is patient, kind, and not proud or rude. Which part of that list feels hardest for you right now and why? How could you practice that kind of love in one relationship this week? Why do people feel like they can fall out of love when love is a choice and not a feeling?

1 Corinthians 13:6 Paul says love rejoices with the truth. How can love and honesty work together instead of pulling apart? When have you seen truth spoken in love actually bring healing?

1 Corinthians 13:7 “Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.” Which of those words—protects, trusts, hopes, perseveres—do you most need God’s help to live out? What would that look like in your daily life?

1 Corinthians 13:8 “Love never fails.” When has God’s love stayed steady for you through a season of change, failure, or disappointment? How has His faithfulness helped you keep loving others?

1 Corinthians 13:13 Faith, hope, and love will last forever—but love is the greatest. Why do you think love matters most to God? How does this chapter challenge the way you define “spiritual maturity”?

APPLICATION: Memorize verse 4-8a: “Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. 5 It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. 6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. 7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. 8 Love never fails.”

WEEK 47

NOVEMBER 23–27

1 CORINTHIANS 13:1–13

READING PLAN

- ☐ MONDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 13
- ☐ TUESDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 14
- ☐ WEDNESDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 15
- ☐ THURSDAY | 1 CORINTHIANS 16
- ☐ FRIDAY | LUKE 1

BIG IDEA:

THE GOOD NEWS ISN'T JUST FOR YOU, IT'S FOR EVERYONE

QUESTIONS:

Luke 2:8–9 The angels appeared to ordinary shepherds out in the fields. What does that tell you about the kind of people God notices and chooses to use? How does that encourage you about your own place in His story?

Luke 2:10–11 The angel called Jesus' birth "good news of great joy for all people." What makes that news personal to you? When did the story of Jesus first become real to you?

Luke 2:12 The Savior of the world came as a tiny baby, laid in a manger. What does His humility teach you about what true greatness looks like? How can you follow His example this Christmas season?

Luke 2:13–14 The angels praised God saying, "Peace on earth." Where do you most need God's peace right now—in your family, work, or heart? How can remembering Jesus' coming help you rest instead of worry?

Luke 2:15–17 As soon as they met Jesus, the shepherds hurried to tell others. Why do you think they couldn't keep the good news to themselves? When is the last time you told someone about Jesus? Who's someone you could tell about Jesus this week, and what's one simple way to do it?

Luke 2:20 The shepherds went back to their normal lives glorifying and praising God. How can you be more intentional to include Jesus and worshiping Him into your daily routine—even when Christmas is over?

WEEK 48

NOV 30–DECEMBER 4

LUKE 2:8–20

READING PLAN

☐ MONDAY | LUKE 2

☐ TUESDAY | LUKE 3

☐ WEDNESDAY | LUKE 4

☐ THURSDAY | LUKE 5

☐ FRIDAY | LUKE 6

APPLICATION: Share the story of Jesus' birth with one person this week through conversation, a Christmas card, or social media.

BIG IDEA:

REAL LOVE MOVES TOWARD THE MESS, NOT AWAY FROM IT

QUESTIONS:

Luke 10:25–28 The expert in the law wanted to test Jesus by asking, “Who is my neighbor?” Do you know your actual neighbors? What does Jesus’ story teach you about what real love looks like in action? How is actually loving people different from just knowing the right answers about love?

Luke 10:29–31 The priest and Levite both saw the hurt man but chose to walk by. When are you most tempted to avoid helping someone who’s struggling?

Luke 10:33 The Samaritan saw the man and had compassion. Who might God be putting on your heart to notice and care for this week? What would compassion look like for that person?

Luke 10:34 The Samaritan didn’t just feel sorry—he took action and met real needs. What are some practical ways you can love someone who’s hurting right now (at work, at home, or in your community)?

Luke 10:35–36 Jesus asked, “Which of these three was a neighbor?” How does that question challenge the way you see people who are different from you? What would it look like to be a neighbor instead of just having neighbors?

Luke 10:37 Jesus finished with, “Go and do likewise.” What keeps you from obeying right away when you feel the nudge to help someone? How can you push past excuses and take action this week? Which one of your neighbors can you help this week?

WEEK 49
DECEMBER 7–11
LUKE 10:25–37

READING PLAN

- ☐ MONDAY | LUKE 7
- ☐ TUESDAY | LUKE 8
- ☐ WEDNESDAY | LUKE 9
- ☐ THURSDAY | LUKE 10
- ☐ FRIDAY | LUKE 11

APPLICATION: This week when cleaning up a mess that you’ve made, or chose to clean up for another, remind yourself that God sent Jesus to come clean up all of our mess.

BIG IDEA:NO ONE IS TOO FAR GONE
FOR THE FATHER'S LOVE*QUESTIONS:

Luke 15:11–13 The younger son demanded his inheritance and walked away from his father's house. When have you tried to live life your own way instead of God's way? What did you learn from that season?

Luke 15:14–16 The son ended up broke, hungry, and alone. What "pigpen" moments has God used to get your attention or draw you back to Him? How did He show grace in that low place?

Luke 15:17–20 When the son finally came home, the father ran to meet him. What does that moment reveal about God's heart for you when you turn back to Him? How does it feel to know He runs toward you, not away from you?

Luke 15:21–24 The father didn't scold his son—he threw a celebration! How can you celebrate God's forgiveness in your life this week? What helps you keep your joy fresh instead of living in guilt or regret of past sin and mistakes?

Luke 15:28–30 The older brother was angry and refused to join the party. When are you tempted to compare your life, blessings, or faith to someone else's? How can comparison steal your joy or your compassion? Do you need to be more accepting of the people that are rough around the edges and celebrate God working in their lives?

Luke 15:31 The father told him, "Everything I have is yours." How does that truth speak to jealousy, insecurity, or feelings of being overlooked? What would it look like to rest in what the Father's already given you?

WEEK 50
DECEMBER 14–18
LUKE 15:11–32READING PLAN

☐ MONDAY | LUKE 12
☐ TUESDAY | LUKE 13
☐ WEDNESDAY | LUKE 14
☐ THURSDAY | LUKE 15
☐ FRIDAY | LUKE 16

APPLICATION: Thank God for His grace this week. Then, reach out to someone who's drifted away and remind them they're always welcome home.

BIG IDEA:

MEETING JESUS CHANGES EVERYTHING

QUESTIONS:

Luke 19:1–3 Zacchaeus wanted to see Jesus but couldn't because of the crowd. What are some things that get in the way of you seeing Jesus clearly? How can you make more space to focus on Him this week?

Luke 19:4–5 Jesus stopped, looked up, and called Zacchaeus by name. How does it make you feel to know Jesus knows your name too? What does that say about His heart for you personally?

Luke 19:6 Zacchaeus hurried down and welcomed Jesus. What would it look like to welcome Jesus fully into your everyday life—your home, your schedule, or your conversations? How would each of those places change if Jesus were in them?

Luke 19:7 When people saw Jesus spend time with Zacchaeus, they judged Him. How do you fight the urge to judge people whose stories you don't know? What helps you see others the way Jesus does?

Luke 19:8–9 After meeting Jesus, Zacchaeus repented and made things right. What does true repentance look like for you this week—turning from something wrong and choosing what's right?

Luke 19:10 Jesus said, "The Son of Man came to seek and save the lost." Who in your life needs that reminder this Christmas season? How could God use you to help them see His love?

WEEK 51
DECEMBER 21–25
LUKE 19:1–10

READING PLAN

- ☐ MONDAY | LUKE 17
- ☐ TUESDAY | LUKE 18
- ☐ WEDNESDAY | LUKE 19
- ☐ THURSDAY | LUKE 20
- ☐ FRIDAY | LUKE 21

APPLICATION: Invite someone to a Christmas service or family gathering where they can experience Jesus' love.

BIG IDEA:

THE EMPTY TOMB MEANS
THERE'S ALWAYS HOPE

QUESTIONS:

Luke 24:1–3 The women came to the tomb and found the stone rolled away. When has God surprised you by doing something you thought was impossible? How did that moment change the way you trust Him

Luke 24:4–6 The angels said, “He is not here; He has risen!” How does Jesus’ resurrection give you courage when you face fear, loss, or disappointment? What situation in your life needs a reminder that God still brings life out of death?

Luke 24:7 The angels reminded them that Jesus had already told them this would happen. What promises from God do you need to hold onto right now? How can you remind yourself of His truth when you start to forget?

Luke 24:8–9 Once they remembered, the women ran to tell the others. How can you share hope with someone who feels hopeless today? Who in your life needs to hear that God still works miracles?

Luke 24:10–11 Some of the disciples didn’t believe at first because it sounded too good to be true. When do you struggle to believe God’s power for yourself? What helps move your faith from doubt to trust?

Luke 24:12 Peter ran to the tomb to see for himself. What “step of faith” do you need to take as you head into a new year—something that requires trust, not just comfort?

WEEK 52
DECEMBER 28–30
LUKE 24:1–12

READING PLAN

- ☐ MONDAY | LUKE 22
- ☐ TUESDAY | LUKE 23
- ☐ WEDNESDAY | LUKE 24
- ☐ THURSDAY | CATCHUP/
REFLECTION

APPLICATION: As you close the year out, thank God for bringing life from death. Write down one way He’s proven faithful in 2026 and share it with someone you know and love. Let that story remind you that the same God who raised Jesus is still working in your life today.
